石の上にも三年

(“Perseverance Pays Off”)

with Amy Nishida,
Managing Director and Chief Operating Officer of Investment Banking at Citigroup
Global Markets Japan Inc.

Amy was a member of the firm's Diversity Council at its inception in January 2004 and has also organized the firm's women's conferences and other women's events. She takes a proactive role in both recruiting as well as networking among women for the firm.

While at Yamaichi, she became one of the first women to be selected as “sogoshoku (professional career track)” in October 1985 prior to Japan's enactment of the Equal Employment Opportunity Law and has been keen to promote women's career opportunities ever since.
