(Doors open at 7:00, Speaker starts at 7:30)

This event will be held at the offices of Bank of America Merrill Lynch in Nihonbashi
(map link at bottom of flyer)

In 2010, AWF was honoured to have Beth Brooke speak on our panel about "Investing in Women to Drive Economic Growth". Three years later, we are thrilled to have Beth as a speaker once again.

Beth Brooke is Global Vice Chair - Public Policy at Ernst & Young and is a member of the firm's Global Executive Board.

Beth has public policy responsibility for the firm's operations worldwide, in addition, to global responsibility for the firm's Diversity and Inclusive efforts. She has been named five times to the list of Forbes "World's 100 Most Powerful Women". She also served in the Clinton Administration.

Beth serves on numerous boards focused on economic development, women's leadership, entrepreneurship to alleviate rural poverty, and public service. A member of the U.S. delegation to the 53rd and 54th United Nations Commission on the Status of Women, Beth also serves on the International Council on Women's Business Leadership led by Secretary of State Hillary Clinton. She received an honorary doctorate from Purdue University.
