

The Association for Women in Finance presents:
“Creative Confidence”
How to Identify, Share, and Communicate Ideas

with The PIRATES of TOKYO BAY
Tuesday, July 11th 2017, 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm

The financial industry is a dynamic and high paced environment. We see rapid changes influenced by the market, regulation, and technology. With that in mind, AWF presents a session focusing on diversity, aiming to tap into your inner confidence and adaptability. This will be a valuable opportunity to develop an ability to think on your feet, handle unexpected situations, and logically converse with people from different backgrounds, generations, and skillsets.

This event will be facilitated by The Pirates of Tokyo Bay, a bilingual improvisational comedy group based in Japan. The Pirates have been conducting workshops and seminars for major businesses and government organizations around South East Asia since 2010. They are professionals who can enrich compatibility and generate synergies the office. Workshops emphasize building communication, teamwork, and entrepreneurial skills.

We encourage you to attend this session to experience a unique learning opportunity while enjoying a cordial time with fellow AWF members.

Doors open at 7:00 pm. Speaker starts at 7:30 pm.
Media policy: please note that this event will be off the record.
