Deputy President, JI Accident & Fire Insurance Co. Ltd.

Wednesday, November 29th 7:00pm – 9:00pm at Restaurant Milieu in Higashi-Azabu

This event will be in Japanese.

Haruko serves as Deputy President of JI Accident & Fire Insurance Company Limited (JI), a joint venture company between AIG Japan Holdings KK and JTB Corporation. Prior to assuming this role in 2017, she was an Executive Corporate Officer, and Chief Operating Officer for AIG Fuji Life, formerly the life insurance arm of the AIG group in Japan.

Haruko began her career as a new graduate at the Bank of Japan in 1987, working in Tokyo and New York in roles in the Financial Markets and International Departments. In 2002, she joined Goldman Sachs where she later became a Managing Director and Head of Human Capital Management for Japan. Haruko was responsible for the Human Capital Management Division and served as a Member of the Executive Committee, Charitable Contribution Advisory Group, and Disciplinary Committee.

Haruko joined the AIG Group in 2009 when she moved to Chartis Far East Holdings K.K. as Executive Vice President of Human Resources. She managed the Human Resource functions in Japan and Korea as the Regional Head of HR and served as a Director of Fuji Fire and Marine Insurance. In 2011, Haruko was appointed HR Strategic Business Partner for AIG Property Casualty based out of AIG's New York head office, with a remit covering thousands of employees across 80 countries. She went on to be named Head of HR Strategic Business Partners for Global Consumer and Science, reporting directly into the Chief HR Officer for AIG and was a member of the AIG HR Executive Group. In 2014, Haruko assumed the role of Director, Chief Operating Officer for AIG Fuji Life based in Tokyo. She earned her undergraduate degree from Tokyo University and studied in the School of Business in Chicago.
