

Extraordinary times, extraordinary measures - A view from Japan''

with Charles Beazley

CEO, Nikko AM

Thursday September 26, 7:00pm – 9:30pm

(Doors open at 7:00 - Speaker starts at 7:30)

This event will be held at the offices of Nikko AM in Tokyo Midtown Tower

The closest station is Roppongi on the Oedo and Hibiya lines (see map link at the bottom of the page)

The last 30 years have been dominated by market forces and economics. The next 30 years will be dominated by politics, societal issues, intra-regional agreements and disagreements, and shifts in the balance of power.

This environment will require extraordinary measures and leadership, which we are beginning to witness here in Japan. How sustainable is this approach and what are the implications for global organizations?

Charles Beazley joined Nikko AM in 2006 and moved to Japan in 2010, where he was responsible for the international and domestic Japanese institutional business. He was appointed CEO in 2012 and President in 2013. Charles has previously held senior level roles at Gartmore, Merrill Lynch, Orion Royal Bank and Lazard.

For any members of the media attending, this event is ON-the-record
