

The Association for Women in Finance presents:

'Change and Diversity in the Australian Context' Maintaining the Momentum

with Clare Walsh

Deputy Head of Mission, Australian Embassy, Japan

Tuesday, September 13th 2016, 6:45 pm - 9:00 pm

(This event will be hosted by Member Firm Macquarie at the Australian Embassy- location details are at the bottom of this flyer)

Ms Clare Walsh is the Deputy Head of Mission at the Australian Embassy in Japan. Ms Walsh has a wide range of international and domestic policy experience from her 16 years working in the Australian Public Service.

Prior to her current role, Ms Walsh led DFAT's development work of the G20 throughout Australia's Presidency in 2014. She was responsible for Australia's engagement in international efforts to design the post-2015 development agenda and the related global debates on development finance. She managed DFAT's relationships with key multilateral organisations, including the Multilateral Development Banks and global health, education and environment funds as well as DFAT's bilateral relationships with other donor countries. Ms Walsh also managed Australia's strategic engagement with development focused non-government organisations and the Australian Volunteers for International Development program.

Before joining DFAT, Ms Walsh was head of the International Division of the Department of Climate Change, and was a senior member of the Australian delegation to the 2009 Copenhagen Climate Change Conference. She formerly held positions in the Department of Environment and the Department of Industry, Tourism and Resources. Ms Walsh's academic qualifications include a Bachelor of Arts, a Graduate Diploma in Environmental Studies, and a Masters of Management.

Doors open at 6:45 pm. Speaker starts at 7:30 pm
