

The Association for Women in Finance presents:

Lunchtime Online: Fireside Chat — Navigating the New York Work Scene

Yuko Yates

Director, Business Support Executive, Legal
Bank of America

Wednesday, April 24, 2024
11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. (JST)

Please note: this is an online Zoom event and will be held in English.

AWF is delighted to invite you to an engaging fireside chat session delving into the dynamic world of working in New York City. Our guest speaker, Yuko Yates, Director, Bank of America, will share her personal anecdotes and insights on the challenges and triumphs of navigating both personal and professional spheres in the Big Apple.

Yuko will share topics such as overcoming personal and professional hurdles in NYC, strategies for career advancement and success, balancing work-life dynamics amidst the urban hustle, understanding the nuances of corporate culture in New York, and how to adapt and thrive within different organizational environments.

Join us for this intimate fireside chat to gain insights into thriving in the vibrant landscape of New York City.

Yuko Yates Yuko Yates leads Business Strategy and Initiatives for the Legal Department. In her role, she is responsible for the development and execution of strategic initiatives including operational excellence, technology initiatives, process and data enablement across the Department. Prior to joining Legal in October 2022, Yuko held various regional and global leadership roles in business enablement and business control functions within Global Markets Operations. Yuko joined the Bank in Singapore in 2010 and relocated to New York in June 2020. Yuko has been actively engaged in driving Diversity & Inclusion efforts in the organization. She currently serves as the co-chair for Asian Leadership Network New York chapter. Yuko is originally from Japan and holds a Bachelor of Law degree from Keio University in Japan. She has been in COO and Risk Management roles in investment banks throughout her career, working in Tokyo, New York, London and Singapore.
