AWF is delighted to invite you to a session on the secrets of top performers with Broadway star Minami Yusui. Join us for an inspiring evening event as we delve into Minami's remarkable career and gain insights on how to break free of limiting beliefs and empower yourself to be a positive force.

There will be time to network after the session. Don't miss this amazing opportunity to talk directly with Minami and, if you order a copy of her book here and bring it to the event, you can have it signed by the author herself!

Minami Yusui has appeared in numerous theatrical productions in both the US and Japan, including on Broadway and in Shiki Theater Company. She has also published a book 『今日から始める SHOW UP の習慣』 (“The Power of Showing Up”).

In 2023, Minami was selected to perform for the Emperor and Empress of Japan at the opening ceremony for the 38th National Cultural Festival and the 23rd National Art and Cultural Festival for People with Disabilities hosted by her home prefecture of Ishikawa.

Minami is also the founder of YU-project, where students and professionals break their limiting beliefs to live their most authentic and fulfilling lives by experiencing the power of the performing arts.

YU-project co-organized a side event for the United Nations Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities called “Disability, Diversity and Inclusion: Broadway Master Class” in 2021.

Minami is passionate about collaborating beyond traditional boundaries to make the performing arts accessible to everyone and bring more joy to people's hearts. Her Broadway Jazz album “playful” is available on iTunes and Spotify.

This event will be held in-person at FIL Investments (Japan) Ltd.
